STOP

"How does one become famous?" a young lad once asked a wise man "By being yourself," replied the wise man

"You see, it matters not how much money you have, or if your name is in the marquee lights What matters is if you're different You must be different"

"But I'm not different" said the young man. "I'm just an ordinary me!"

And the wise man replied, "You just keep that attitude, build on it, improve it Never settle for second best And always remember that God only made one you. And when you are yourself — you are your best self!"

Terrell transferred to the University of Southern Mississippi where he played football and obtained a marketing and merchandising degree in 1949.

Since leaving the River, Terrell has climbed the business ladder. Following his graduation from USM he began a career with Sears, Roebuck and Company which began in Mobile and ended in Chicago in 1979 as the company's national operating manager.

Reunions are "special"

It was a special day as members of the classes of 1934, '35, and '36 made their way back to the campus where they spent many happy days some 50 years ago.

Class president Durward Seal of Franklinton, along with Bessie Mae (Newsom) Stewart from the Gulf Coast, Kathryn Moody of Poplarville and Wilma Ducker of Purvis spearheaded the program for the Big 50 reunion as it was lovingly termed.

A luncheon for the 50 or so members was held in the cafeteria before the group's participation in the annual homecoming parade.

A business meeting was held at 4:30 p.m. and nearly all attended the PRC Alumni Banquet at 6 p.m.

At the luncheon, Bessie Mae Stewart helped the members remember the good old days at the River with pictures from their school days as Joyce Mitchell accompanied the Share Time at the piano.

A pop test and a reading by Rose (Gandy) Lightsey was also part of the event. There was a profound musical rendition and choral reading by the Big 50's Guess Who Group.

"This was such a special occasion for us," said Seal. "Through all the years Pearl River College has always remained such an important part of all our lives."

Junior College Presidents And Governor Bill Allain

Dr. Alexander, Fifth from Left

Dr. Ted J. Alexander, president of Pearl River Junior College, was born on April 25, 1936, on a small dairy farm in the small community of Clarksburg, between Morton and Pelahatchie, to James and Lessye Alexander. His father worked as a mechanic on his grandfather's dairy farm following the Great Depression. His father landed a job with Missouri Pacific Trailways and the family moved to Algiers, LA. However, in time they returned to Morton and then to Jackson where Alexander finished high school.

He entered Millsaps College, majoring in English with emphasis in American Literature. In 1958, he received his B.A. degree in this field. In 1959, he recieved a second certification in the Biological Sciences, then went on to attend Mississippi College where he pursued a dual Master's program in School Administration and Guidance.

During this time he received a National Science Foundation Fellowship and did advanced graduate work in the Biological Sciences at Louisiana Polytechnic Institute in Ruston, LA. In 1973, he completed his studies at the University of Southern Mississipi with a Doctorate in Educational Administration.

Alexander, past Superintendent of Schools of McComb Municipal Separate School District of McComb, considered becoming the president of PRC a high point in his career.

The Alexanders have become a part of the Poplarville community as well as the college scene. Mrs. Alexander teaches business administration at Poplarville High School where son, Bryan, is a junior. Brent, the older son, is a senior at his father's alma mater, Millsaps.

We welcome the Alexanders to PRC!

Coliseum Named For Dr. M. R. White

Dr. Marvin R. White retired as president of PRC June 30, but there will always be a constant reminder on the River campus of his contributions to Mississippi's pioneer junior college since being elected president in the fall of 1967.

In a formal ceremony before more than 300 friends, alumni, students, and state dignitaries, the PRC Board of Trustees officially named the Marvin R White Coliseum in his honor.

The coliseum, a multi-purpose building, built through Dr. White's leadership in 1974, was the scene of the appreciation dinner staged for him and Mrs. White.

President White was presented plaques from the athletic department, the current student body, and was recognized by Kathleen Bogle and the PRC Faculty Association and the Mississippi House of Representatives and Senate.

Representative Curtis Holston presented the resolution of the Mississippi Legislature and PRC Board Chairman Jim Thriffiley of Bay St. Louis presented Dr. White with an etching, signifying his inclusion in the college's Portraits of Greatness series.

Dr. Alexander cited in Executive Educator 100

Dr Ted J Alexander, president of Pearl River Junior College, is one of 100 outstanding school managers in North America, according to "The Executive Educator", a magazine for school professionals.

Alexander is cited in "The Executive Educator 100," a blue-ribbon listing similar to the "Fortune 500" of the "Forbes 400" for business and industry. This year's 100 are recognized for their excellent leadership and outstanding professional achievements. The Executive Educator 100 are highlighted in the magazine's February issue.

"Each of the 100 clearly has achievements worthy of the attention of fellow administrators and school board members throughout North America," said Gregg Downey, editor and assistant publisher of the "American School Board Journal" and "The Executive Educator."

Alexander was chosen for the honor by an independent panel of nationally recognized experts on school administration. During three days of screening, the panel of preeminent educators, assessed nominations according to the 11 criteria of excellence established for Executive Educator. Carroll F. Johnson, professor emeritus of education, Columbia University, New York City, served as chairman of the panel.

"In a field of 300,000 school executives these are 100 of the best," said Downey. "Their accomplishments both reflect and represent all outstanding school executives."

Alexander, former McComb School Superintendent, became president of Pearl River Junior College on July 1, 1986.

During his tenure at McComb, Alexander invited consultants and Mississippi colleagues to help him establish a staff development program that later served as a model for other school systems. The program required Alexander to lengthen the school day and school year so instructional time wouldn't be lost when classes were dismissed early on Wednesday afternoons for staff development sessions.

"It was a pretty radical departure for staff development programs in Mississippi," he says. Alexander also led the McComb schools in becoming a founding member of the Program for Research and Evaluation in Public Schools, a school consortium established by Mississippi superintendents to evaluate and improve instructional programs.

PERK WEEK ...

It gets craaaazzzzyyyy around here! During this week Pearl River College comes alive. It's a time when students explode with school spirit.

When the Pearl River College Wildcats face the Gulf Coast Bulldogs of Perkinston (Perk), it's more than just a football game. It's a tradition — a rivalry.

These two schools have more quirks than the Hatfields and McCoys. Will it ever end — it's very doubtful. This year, Perk got the upper hand. But the tradition and the rivalry lives on. Next year it will be the same, if not worse.

PRC vs. Perk — it brings out the crazy people!!!

The Pearl River College annual Halloween Carnival held in Shiver's Gym was "terrifically ghoulish" according to Harvey Seligman, PRC activities director.

Three participants in the costume contest won the leading spot in three different categories of competition. James McQueen won in the Spookiest category, Gene Pharr was chosen Most Original, and Chrystal Griffith was named Prettiest of this year's carnival. Cathy Lee was the recipient of a clock-radio raffled by the Newman Club.

FASHION SHOW 1986

Pearl River College was hit by style Tuesday night, December 9, as Poplarville merchants staged a fashion show in Marion Hall.

The event, "A Home for Christmas Fashion Show" was coordinated by Byrle Harriel of Hair by Byrle, and featured fashions by nine local merchants.

The PRC audience was treated to seeing approximately 40 students and adults model holiday fashions. The purpose of the show, according to Harriel, was "The Merchants Association would like to extend their cheer to the River Magic. It's a good way for merchants to get to know the students and to let them know we're here to serve them."

Local merchants to participate included The Duffle Bag, Pete's Athletic Shop, Pearl River Coop., Circle H Western Wear, A&B Fabrics, Williams' Store, Apples, LTD; Movie Star of Poplarville and Hair by Byrle.

Kathryn Moody was the show's narrator. Mark Bridgers did the music/sound, Judy Holston did the staging, David Lee handled the lights, and Byrle, Lola, and Dianne from Hair by Byrle styled hair during a break.

Casual and dressy clothes were featured in a beautiful red and green Christmas atmosphere. As the models modeled the clothes, they slowly decorated the Christmas tree in the center of the stage which was made special over the fountain for the show.

This is the second show sponsored by the Merchants Association. The other one was in October of last year.

Fashionable clothes were shown, including paisley print outfits, bright colored blouse and pants sets, nice suits and beautiful decorative sweaters.

Props were provided by Western Auto, Poplarville Hardware, Rhonda's Calico Crafts, TWL Store, D'egg's Tree Farm, Radio Shack, Poplarville Auto Parts, Ina's Flowers, and City Florist.

PRC thanks Byrle Harriel, Kathryn Moody, the other merchants, and the models for arranging such an enjoyable evening for the students.

STUDENT LIFE

STUDENT LIFE

1987 SPRING

This spring the River burst its banks with a record enrollment of 1595 students.

The spring enrollment is up 12% from last year, and down only 7% from the fall. This unexpected flux caused the male dorms to be filled to their 251 capacity and still left 11 students on the waiting list. The female dorms were filled to 77% with 170 students being housed.

REGISTRATION

This high enrollment was evident at registration when lines extended from the library to the end of the academic building. It was also evident when a majority of the classes filled up causing students to choose other less desirable times for classes.

The high enrollment was compensated for when five new classes were offered. They include New Testament Survey, First Aid, Social Problems, Traditional Grammar, and Occupational Writing.

1987 PRC'S

The blood drive held in Marion Hall on January 28 by the MS Blood Services drew 138 interested donors. Because of medical reasons, 11 of these were turned away. There were 127 pints of blood given, resulting in an over 100% success rate. The goal was to get 100 pints of blood.

This blood drive was even more of a success than last year's blood drive. Then, PRC students gave 95 pints of blood. It was a 100 pint goal with 95% success rate.

Despite one person fainting and some blood splattering, donors, with determination, went toward their noble goal. They gave blood and later received complimentary refreshments and a T-shirt from MBS.

For five hours, interested donors arrived at the rate of about 26 an hour. Nursing students from the co-sponsor of the blood drive, MASN, helped register students and gave out refreshments provided by Morrison's.

Each person went through a registration process to make sure he or she had no medical condition that prevented the right to give blood. They were turned away if they had conditions such as: being underweight, hepatitis, allergies, blood diseases, drugs in system, heart diseases, asthma, diabetes, Mono, ulcers, pregnancy, or AIDS.

The conditions aren't allowable if occurring within the last six months. Then, the person had to have his or her temperature taken, a:

well as have his or her blood typed and checked for an iron deficiency. If the person had lacked sufficient iron then, he or she was asked to take vitamins or eat more foods with iron and donate another time.

After the student was declared eligible to donate, he or she was sent to get a blood donor bag and told to stand in line. Then the donor was laid out on a flat hospital bed to finally give blood—the whole purpose. The process of giving blood usually takes 10 to 20 minutes, from the time of needle insertion and drawing of blood, to the final needle withdrawal.

After giving their blood for the purpose of saving lives, donors were given cookies and punch to restore some energy sapped from losing a pint of blood. In a few weeks, the donor's lost blood will be completely reproduced with no ill effects to the person. The donors were also given free T-shirts which said, "Blood is like a parachute, if it's not there when you need it, you'll probably never need it again."

There are several benefits of giving blood. Besides getting a blood donor card, the donor gets his or her blood typed and checked for medical records. He or she also gets a free credit for the amount of blood given. If the donor needs blood in the future, then he or she won't have to pay for the amount credited.

Blood helps keep everyone healthy and living. If a person donates, he or she gets the opportunity to help someone else stay that way.

So this is the "college life". It's a home away from home — a city within a city.

And this is the River. A place where friendship is abundant, and a warm smile isn't so hard to find.

The River flows with magic. And you can see that magic on the faces of everyone that gathers within the banks of this mighty, rushing current.

But the River takes care of its own. Those who have followed its guidance have seen their dreams come true.

At Pearl River College, you're not just another number on a computer read out sheet. You are an individual.

It's that special feeling of being close that makes students here at the River a family. You meet new friends every day. And the feelings you have here on this campus will last a lifetime.

Many have come to the River. And many have said that there's nothing like it anywhere else they've been.

You'll cherish these moments of magic . . . forever.

The Pearl River College Marching Band, The Spirit of the River, completed a very successful marching season in the fall 1986

According to Archie Rawls, PRC band director, this year's edition of the Spirit was the best in the school's history. With new uniforms, a larger color guard, and the incorporation of the String of Pearls into the entire show, the band electrified the audiences at Pearl River half-time performances.

The marching show included Durango, a fiery Spanish opener; All Night Long, Lionel Richie's most popular song; Paradox, featuring the percussion section; Boogie Down, a hip version of Al Jarreau's hit that featured the String of Pearls and the barefoot trombone section; and a powerful arrangement of the beautiful Greatest Love of All.

Rawls attributes the awesome sound of the band to the depth of excellent talent in the brass section. "I don't think there is another junior college band in the state with as many outstanding players as we have this year."

The success of the band was rewarded by invitations to appear in exhibition at both the Picayune and Tylertown marching festivals. Combined, these two appearances allowed the band the opportunity to perform for nearly 5000 high school band students from Mississippi and Louisiana.

The band was led on the field this year by Stephanie Cummings, a freshman from Oak Grove. The color guard was taught by Rudy Rowell, a PRC graduate who is now band director at Hancock North Central.

Rawls said he was already looking forward to 1987 to continue the tradition of excellence that has been established in the band program at the River.
